3/17/71 Chgo Daily

Jon and Abra

By Jon and Abra Anderson

PRESIDENT NIXON hopes to undercut a fresh bloom of antiwar sentiment at home by quickening withdrawal of troops from Vietnam . . . One reflection of that sentiment is this motto, spotted in a Chicago tavern: "If at first you don't succeed, try Cambodia . . . then Laos . . . then Thailand."

Carter

●GREAT WAY TO BEAT THE BLUES is suggested by John Beug, owner of the "Ears" record shop on N. Sedgwick. He listens to recordings of the California surf . . . Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young are fueding among themselves. That explains the delay in the release of their new album . . . Owners of WGLD radio are displeased with controversial legal researcher Sherman Skolnick and have dropped his weekly show.

LONG BATTLE with distributors, the Sunday